

JOHN HERROD Sells the above Coffee together with a complete line of STAPLE AND FANCY GROCERIES. Prices Always Reasonable. HIGHEST MARKET PRICE Paid For Country Produce.

THE BEST MADE. The Model Clothing House, SOLE AGENT FOR Western Nebraska.

NOTICE.

NORTH PLATTE, March 7th, 1895. We, the undersigned, hereby forbid all persons from trespassing upon any portion of our premises. Any person hunting, shooting, fishing or trespassing upon any of our lands will be prosecuted to the full extent of the law.

Notice.

I desire to sell the hay crop for 1895, on the large Sidney Dillon Island located at Sutherland, sections 2, 3, 4, 5, town 13 north, and sections 33, 34, 35 and 36, in town 14 north, all in range 34 west, to the highest bidder for cash. Bids will be received up to July 1st, 1895, and reserve the right to reject any and all bids. N. B. OLDS.

Studebaker Wagons at Hershey & Co's.

For Sale or Trade.

The White Elephant barn. Also several vacant lots. Will trade for ditch or hay land, or cattle. The above property is clear of incumbrance. Inquire of J. R. BANGS.

$25 Reward

Will be paid for anyone giving information leading to the arrest and conviction of the parties who poisoned my greyhounds at the Scout's Rest Ranch the latter part of February. COL. W. F. CODY.

FOR SALE OR TRADE

For sale or trade, for horses, or cattle at a reasonable price, a five year old registered Percheron Norman stallion, nearly black in color. MAX BEER, North Platte, Nebraska.

Did you ever have a job done at C. Newman's shoe shop. If not come and try him. Shoes and boots made to order. All kinds of repairing a specialty. Spruce street, opposite Dr. Dick's drug store.

SMOKERS

In search of a good cigar will always find it at J. F. Schmalzried's. Try them and judge.

WHEATLAND, WYO.

There is no finer agricultural section in all this broad western country than can be found in the vicinity of the beautiful little town of Wheatland, Wyoming, ninety-six miles north of Cheyenne. Immense crops, never failing supply of water, rich land, and great agricultural resources. Magnificent farms to be had for little money. Reached via the Union Pacific System.

E. L. LOMAX, Ticket Agent, Omaha, Neb.

KELLNER & FRAZIER, BUILDERS OF IRRIGATION CANALS

Ditches and Laterals. NORTH PLATTE, NEB

FOR RELIABLE INSURANCE GO TO T. C. PATTERSON. ONLY FIRST-CLASS COMPANIES REPRESENTED.

MINOR MENTION.

Miss Berenice Searle, of Ogallala, visited North Platte friends Saturday and Sunday.

Owing the recent advance in eastern markets, our merchants have been obliged to raise the price of coal oil.

PAY UP—All parties indebted to Miss Kate Wood will please call and settle at once with Mrs. Wood, corner of Spruce and Fifth streets.

A Perkins county publisher has been corresponding with Register Hinman relative to the establishment in this city of a democratic paper.

F. E. Bullard has recently been making some additions to his greenhouse and he now has a veritable crystal palace at the rear of his residence.

Photographer Broach, accompanied by Messrs. Park, Barnum and Seelberger, were up along the old ditch yesterday taking views to be used in the immigration pamphlet.

Robert Mason returned Monday from Texas, after nearly a year's absence. He reports business looking up in that section, and will return there in about ten days.

The 628 came out of the shops a few days ago after receiving some light repairs and being repainted, and Fredrickson caught a passenger run the first rattle out of the box.

The TRIBUNE has heard the names of Miss W. E. Hess and Harvey Swarthout mentioned as candidates for the position of member of board of education. Each is qualified for the position.

The new men Geo. H. and Will H. Daly have taken hold of the McPherson County News with a vim and energy which bids fair to make it a more interesting local paper than ever before.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Laing gave a dinner party Friday, the guests including Col. and Mrs. Cody, Mr. and Mrs. Bradford, of Denver, Mrs. Boal, Misses Hail and McGee, and several young men.

Messrs. Ridgley, Elliott and Edmonds who represented the L. L. A. of this city in the joint debate with the Brady Islanders Saturday night, met a Waterloo, but like the old guard they fought to the bitter end.

So say we all of us: "It strikes us that if the postal department would change the Tryon postal route to come from North Platte instead of from Gandy it would be a great convenience to the people of this county.—McPherson Co. News.

Second quarterly meeting at the Methodist Episcopal church Sunday, March 17th. Love feast at 10 a. m. Our Lord's supper at the close of the evening service. Quarterly conference on Monday evening at 7:30. Sermon by Rev. J. Leonard Sunday evening.

In this issue we present to our readers the first of the advertisements entered for the Clifton diamond ring contest by the graduating class of the High school for the year '95. The remaining eleven, two each week, will be published, after which the premium will be awarded by three disinterested judges who will not know the authors.

Died, March 8th, at her father's home near Somerset, Mrs. Lydia Ratliff, aged 16 years. A large number of friends attended the funeral on Saturday, the 9th, conducted by Rev. W. E. Hardaway. Mrs. Ratliff leaves a baby two weeks old, a heart broken husband and many friends to mourn. The remains were buried at Wellfleet.

J. Linn Torrey, of Wyoming, was in the city yesterday examining some of the fine horses at Col. Cody's ranch, with a view to purchasing the same. He was formerly a prominent attorney of St. Louis, Mo., occupying a position upon the bench, and is the author of what is known as the Torrey bankruptcy bill. He is an old friend of John L. Minor, of this city.

On last Friday evening a goodly number of neighbors met at Syl Friend's house and then proceeded to the home of Joe Weeks and gave him and his estimable wife a surprise. The surprise was a complete one to Mr. and Mrs. Weeks, but they quickly rallied and entertained the guests in a very pleasant manner. After spending several hours in playing cards and other games, a nice lunch was served.

Engines 435, 587 and 1302 are in the city to-day en route for the Oregon Short Line. They are a miscellaneous looking job lot, and must have been in use on some backwoods branch, as they have not been visible on the main line for years. The second one enumerated was run out of this station years ago by the late Barney McDonald. The last one mentioned is a huge rebuilt slack-burner and on a level track has a capacity of a solid mile of cars.

A. A. Fort received this week a circular from Chas. W. Irish, chief of the irrigation department, describing a crimson clover, cow peas and white oats. These plants, so Mr. Irish states, are splendidly adapted to the semi-arid regions of the west. Mr. Irish states that he will forward a few samples for distribution to Mr. Fort. If the cow peas could be made to take the place of the wild peas that grow on our sandy lands, they might be of some benefit to the lighter soils of Lincoln county.

While in Omaha recently division superintendent W. L. Park made arrangements whereby the Belgian minister to the United States will be brought to North Platte when he is making a tour under instructions from his government to look out a location for the establishment of a colony of his countrymen. It is said that the colony consists of farmers who have means to purchase their lands, and as this is a desirable class of immigrants who readily adopt American customs and methods, and at once become amenable to our laws, it behooves our immigration society, as well as all our people, to keep this matter in view.

Mrs. W. O. Wisner, who has been visiting the family of A. A. Davis, left this morning for a month's visit at Hooper, Neb.

The question at issue in the school election should be "schoolhouse" or "anti-schoolhouse," and the former should carry by a large majority.

Otto Steuve, the delivery boy at Baekin's meat market, yesterday succeeded in getting his hand in a sausage machine and had it badly mangled.

The TRIBUNE will this week print a large number of contracts between the proprietors of the "Wild West" show and the Indians who will participate therein.

A Mr. Sims, of Kem precinct, has been furnished credentials by the county officials, and started this morning for Missouri in quest of seed grain and feed.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Bradford, of Denver, who have been visiting Mrs. Bradford's brother, Col. Cody, for the last two weeks, will return to Denver to-morrow.

The register of the Nebraska House gives evidence that hotel is doing a good business. The arrivals yesterday took a good part one page of the register.

The land office department has refused to have a small island down near the McPherson reservation surveyed and platted because it is not at all seasons separated from the main land.

The horsehoers of this city are engaged in a little rate war which will inure to the benefit of the barefooted equines. One smith has been shoeing at the rate of $3, while another firm is proposing to go him a dollar off and shoe for $2.

The printing for the B. of L. E. May party is being prepared, and from the way the members of the organization are taking hold of the affair they do not propose that the thirteenth annual event shall prove a "hoodoo." May it prove a "mascot" instead.

Wm. Coleman is once more a free man, having served out the jail sentence imposed upon him by Judge Holcomb, and being discharged from the county jail last Friday.

The examining committee of the Mutual Building and Loan Association audited its books Saturday night, and it is needless to state found everything in a satisfactory condition.

Mrs. J. P. Schmitgen, of Garfield precinct, is now matron at the jail, during the absence of Mrs. Miller, and she has a great deal of trouble in keeping that unruly Tim Keilher straight.

The postmaster general has ordered the name of the office at Broken Bow changed to Brokenbow, and the people thereof are very wroth. Perhaps he may next want us to write it Northplatte.

The Lincoln County Immigration Association is preparing to shortly issue some handsome photographic pictures portraying the four pillars upon which Lincoln county must rest her future prosperity.

E. W. Crane left Sunday night for Missouri to solicit seed grain for Lincoln county. He will go via Lincoln and is properly armed with the necessary credentials. May he meet with prompt responses to his appeals.

Next Saturday evening the debaters of the White Plains school district in this county will invade Gandy and debate some topic of burning interest. The members of our local L. L. A. will have to run up against the Logan county wind-mills.

The fee bill—jurors, witnesses and bailiffs—for the ten days session of the district court just closed amounts to the snug sum of $1618. In addition to this amount something like $300 of attorney's fees have been filed for the defense of criminals.

Dick Forrest, who has recently bought a farm on the old ditch, has shipped in the foundation stone for his house from Sidney. His experiment with the stone will be watched with a great deal of interest, and if it proves successful will be followed by others.

James Lindsay, the Omaha pugilist, who had a little set-to about a year ago with Judge Ray, wherein the latter worsted him for about $50, was last Friday adjudged guilty of manslaughter by a Cass county jury, as a result of his fight with one Robbins.

Kate Wood, the milliner, has accepted a position in charge of this department at H. C. Rennie's, and has gone east for a brief trip to pick up the latest novelties in this line. Her own stock will be sold by her mother in the Hershey building on Spruce street.

John McCullough, of Maxwell, was in town Friday on business connected with the irrigation ditch he is constructing. This canal is on McCullough's island, will be about seven miles in length, and is expected to irrigate four thousand acres of land. It will only be partially completed this spring, on account of some of the land owners being unable to do their part of the work. Mr. McCullough will be able however, to irrigate about 400 acres of his land this season.

PRIZE AD. NO. 1.

To Clinton, to Clinton the jeweler go; His stock is matchless all well know; His trade increases day by day; His prices will suit in every way. Step in and examine for a while All the beauties—a very large pile Of clocks, watches, silverware fine And all that's found in his line. So, if anything nice you want to buy, Go to Clinton: your wants he'll supply.

Two cars of seed grain were received at this place yesterday morning.

The graduating class of the high school had a class dinner at the Hotel Neville Friday last.

Mrs. Cody and Mrs. Boal will entertain a number of lady friends at a luncheon on Wednesday afternoon.

The Hotel Neville building has been ornamented with two very conspicuous signs. This hostelry is enjoying an excellent patronage.

There was an unusually large number of farmers in the city Saturday, but our business men report that there was not a great overplus of cash in circulation.

"Hon. E. B. Warner," according to the Lincoln Journal has been selected as a state delegate to the national meeting of the K. O. T. M. in Port Huron, Mich., next May.

Geo. C. Stoddard has received a copy of the Mexico, Mo. Ledger, acknowledging his receipt for the relief contributions sent here by the generous people of Audrain county.

Wm. Coleman is once more a free man, having served out the jail sentence imposed upon him by Judge Holcomb, and being discharged from the county jail last Friday.

The examining committee of the Mutual Building and Loan Association audited its books Saturday night, and it is needless to state found everything in a satisfactory condition.

Mrs. J. P. Schmitgen, of Garfield precinct, is now matron at the jail, during the absence of Mrs. Miller, and she has a great deal of trouble in keeping that unruly Tim Keilher straight.

The postmaster general has ordered the name of the office at Broken Bow changed to Brokenbow, and the people thereof are very wroth. Perhaps he may next want us to write it Northplatte.

The Lincoln County Immigration Association is preparing to shortly issue some handsome photographic pictures portraying the four pillars upon which Lincoln county must rest her future prosperity.

E. W. Crane left Sunday night for Missouri to solicit seed grain for Lincoln county. He will go via Lincoln and is properly armed with the necessary credentials. May he meet with prompt responses to his appeals.

Next Saturday evening the debaters of the White Plains school district in this county will invade Gandy and debate some topic of burning interest. The members of our local L. L. A. will have to run up against the Logan county wind-mills.

The fee bill—jurors, witnesses and bailiffs—for the ten days session of the district court just closed amounts to the snug sum of $1618. In addition to this amount something like $300 of attorney's fees have been filed for the defense of criminals.

Dick Forrest, who has recently bought a farm on the old ditch, has shipped in the foundation stone for his house from Sidney. His experiment with the stone will be watched with a great deal of interest, and if it proves successful will be followed by others.

James Lindsay, the Omaha pugilist, who had a little set-to about a year ago with Judge Ray, wherein the latter worsted him for about $50, was last Friday adjudged guilty of manslaughter by a Cass county jury, as a result of his fight with one Robbins.

Kate Wood, the milliner, has accepted a position in charge of this department at H. C. Rennie's, and has gone east for a brief trip to pick up the latest novelties in this line. Her own stock will be sold by her mother in the Hershey building on Spruce street.

John McCullough, of Maxwell, was in town Friday on business connected with the irrigation ditch he is constructing. This canal is on McCullough's island, will be about seven miles in length, and is expected to irrigate four thousand acres of land. It will only be partially completed this spring, on account of some of the land owners being unable to do their part of the work. Mr. McCullough will be able however, to irrigate about 400 acres of his land this season.

PURELY PERSONAL.

Rev. M. O'Toole went to Sidney yesterday morning on Mo. 7.

E. D. Murphy, of Brady Island, transacted business in this city yesterday.

John Tighe returned Sunday night from his sad trip to the Empire state.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Hughes, of Juniata, Neb., are visiting their children in this city.

W. F. Bock left yesterday morning for Sidney to accept a position with the Union Pacific company.

Mrs. F. N. Donaldson expects to leave in a few days for a visit with her mother in Minneapolis.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Gibbs left last Saturday for St. Louis, where they will visit their daughter for a time.

W. S. Vaughan left yesterday morning for the east to solicit seed and feed grain contributions for this county.

Harry Kramph has returned to Dawson county, where he is engaged with Kittell & Van Natta in laying out irrigation ditches.

H. M. Grimes went to Sidney Monday, being employed as counsel in the commissioner contest case which is being tried in the district court of Cheyenne county this week.

Geo. R. Hammond returned Sunday morning from his southern trip. He is much in rapture with the land of the magnolia and mosquito and will probably locate at some point in Texas.

Max Einstein returned the latter part of the week from New York City, where he had been for the purpose of purchasing a stock for the Model Clothing House. These goods are now arriving.

Miss Irene Hartman visited the family of Rev. E. Smith, at Kearney, for several days last week. Mr. Smith was formerly in charge of the Methodist church of this city and is now presiding elder of the Kearney district.

R. H. Langford returned to the city for a visit with his family last Friday night, after an absence of five years. He has been located at Loraine, Ohio, for a year, where he is practicing law. He will remain in town for a week or more.

Fireman J. S. Burns made a brief visit in Omaha the latter part of the week.

There are scarcely enough boiler-makers left in the shops to make a respectable noise.

The boys in the tinker shop have just completed a new sand drying apparatus for the Sidney round-house.

W. J. Stuart resumed his run Sunday night after laying off two trips on account of an attack of quinsy.

Archie Howard, who has been temporarily acting as night yardmaster at Sidney, had a finger mashed one night last week.

Joe. Morris, of Grand Island, passed through this city yesterday, with the 1035, on her way to the Wyoming division. The 1439 and the 1814 went through light for the same point.

Warren Lloyd has accepted the position of day watchman at the depot, and U. G. Sawyer takes the night position. P. H. McEvoy, who has had the night job, has been given a position in the shops.

Secretary Carlisle has issued an order that hereafter all compensation for mail and other services rendered the government by certain non-aided or leased lines of the Union Pacific railroad company shall be paid to the receivers of the respective companies. This is in accordance with recent court decisions.

Rev. J. C. Irwin left yesterday for Hastings to stop the shipment of a car of corn for this county from that city. It appears that the price of this amount of corn has been raised ready for its purchase, but the local relief committee think that the money would be of more service to it just at present, than the corn, as other supplies are needed for which it has no funds to purchase.

The blue-bird is hailed as a harbinger of spring. It is also a reminder that a blood-purifier is needed to prepare the system for the debilitating weather to come. Listen and you will hear the birds singing: "Take Ayer's Sarsaparilla in March, April, May."

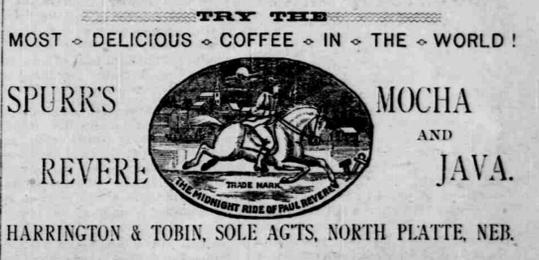

Our Lady Friends May depend on us when wishing to purchase Shoes of Standard Quality, Latest Designs and Perfect Fitting. An inspection is invited.

'Tis sweet to love, but oh how bitter, To love a girl whose shoes don't fit her: This often happens, when bought of others, But never when bought of RICHARDS BROS.

The Fair.

When Buying Minneapolis FLOUR Why not get the BEST? Washburn's Superlative Has no superior—no equal. It is the result of studied improvement in milling machinery—the product of the hard, excellent wheat of the north. If you are not using the Washburn Flour, try it. It is sold by JOHN HERROD, SOLE AGENT.

Most delicious coffee in the world! F. J. BROEKER, HARRINGTON & TOBIN, SOLE AGTS, NORTH PLATTE, NEB. A Fine Line of Piece Goods to select from. First-class Fit. Excellent Workmanship.

Friday night Sheriff Miller and Sam Clapp took Bailey and Schick to the penitentiary to serve the sentences recently imposed by the district court. Mrs. Miller accompanied them, and herself and husband will spend several days in visiting friends at Eagle, this state.

A hint to our own and only William: "When Buffalo Bill completes his arrangements for the accommodation of sportsmen in search of good hunting in the neighborhood of the Big Horn mountains he ought to invite President Cleveland to tackle something bigger than ducks the next time he wants to take exercise with his gun."—Omaha Bee.

Why Was It WE FURNISH The Tribune —and— INTER OCEAN —for—

$1.60 per year IN ADVANCE

E. B. WARNER, Funeral Director. AND EMBALMER. A full line of first-class funeral supplies always in stock. NORTH PLATTE, NEBRASKA. Telegraph orders promptly attended to.